Third Grade

Summer Reading

Students entering the Third Grade are required to read this summer. They will be required to read TWO books and will have assignments for those books on their return to school. We would like them to read more than what is required!

All students are required to read How to be Cool in the Third Grade by Betsy Duffy. A test will be given during the first full week of school on this book.

Your child can choose one of the following titles for the second book. A project will be assigned upon their return to school.

No Talking by Andrew Clements

Class Clown by Johanna Hurwitz

Little House on the Prairie by Laura Ingalls Wilder

Skinnybones by Barbara Park

James and the Giant Peach by Roald Dahl

Matilda by Roald Dahl

Ramona by Beverly Cleary

Be a Perfect Person in Three Days by Stephen Manes

Percy Jackson and the Olympians (Series) by Rick Riordan
